S. B. No. 293

By [illegible]
SB No. 293

A BILL
To Be Entitled
An Act

~~AN ACT~~ providing that Brown County Water Improvement District No. 1 may collect delinquent taxes and bring suit for the collection of such taxes, by foreclosure and otherwise, after the bonds and the interest on said bonds, for which taxes have been levied and assessed, have been paid; providing for the use of funds so collected and the use of any surplus in the "Interest and Sinking Fund"; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. All taxes levied and assessed by Brown County Water Improvement District No. 1 for the payment of bonds issued by the district and interest thereon may be collected, or suit may be brought to enforce collection of such delinquent taxes by foreclosure or otherwise, even though the bonds and interest accrued thereon, for which such taxes were levied and assessed, have been paid in full; and the proceeds from such collections and suits to enforce collection may be deposited in such funds as may be determined by the district and be used by the district for the construction, maintenance and operation of the properties of said district, and to defray the operating expenses thereof as may be determined by the directors of said district.

Sec. 2. Any surplus funds remaining in the "Interest and Sinking Fund" of such district after satisfying the principal and interest due on bonds issued by the district, and for the payment of which such fund was established, may be used for any of the purposes indicated in Section 1 hereof.

Sec. 3. The fact that there is now no law authorizing Brown County Water Improvement District No. 1 to collect delinquent taxes, and bring suit for the collection of delinquent taxes, after the bonds and interest thereon, for which such taxes were levied and assessed, have been paid; and the fact that there is now no law authorizing the use of surplus funds remaining in the "Interest and Sinking Fund" of such district after ~~the~~ the satisfying of the principal and interest due on such bonds, and no law specifying the use to be made of funds collected from delinquent taxes after the payment of such bonds, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each ~~h~~House be suspended, and said Rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

FORM A

(For favorable and unfavorable reports on bills and resolutions, where no committee amendments are recommended.)

COMMITTEE ROOM

Date April 1, 1963,

HON. BYRON M. TUNNELL
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir:

We, your Committee on Conservation and Reclamation, to whom was referred S.B. No. 293, have had the same under consideration and beg to report back with recommendation that it { do / ~~do not~~ } pass, and be printed

de la Garza
Chairman.

(When this form is used for a favorable report on a general bill the words "do not" are marked out. If the bill is a local bill the word "not" should be inserted before the word "printed." When used for an unfavorable report the word "do" is marked out, the comma after "pass" is changed to a period, and the remaining words also marked out.

When this form is used for a simple or concurrent resolution the comma after "pass" should be a changed to a period and the remaining words stricken out because resolutions are printed in the Journal when first introduced.)
