By Whitmire S.J.R. No. 45

A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of corrections institutions.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Article III, Section 49-h, of the Texas Constitution is amended by adding Subsection (e) to read as follows:

(e)(1) The legislature may authorize the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds, in addition to the amount authorized by Subsections (a) and (c) of this section, and use the proceeds of the bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of corrections institutions.

(2) The provisions of Subsection (a) of this section relating to the review and approval of bonds and the provisions of Subsection (b) of this section relating to the status of the bonds as a general obligation of the state and to the manner in which the principal and interest on the bonds are paid apply to bonds authorized under this subsection.

SECTION 2. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 2, 1993. The ballot shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the

1 issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds payable
2 from the general revenues of the state for projects relating to
3 facilities of corrections institutions."

FISCAL NOTE
73rd Regular Session

April 21, 1993

TO: Honorable John Montford, Chair
Committee on Finance
Senate Chamber
Austin, Texas

IN RE: Senate Joint Resolution
No. 45
By: Whitmire

FROM: Jim Oliver, Director

In response to your request for a Fiscal Note on Senate Joint Resolution No. 45 (proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of corrections institutions) this office has determined the following:

The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment which, if adopted by the voters at an election held on November 2, 1993, would authorize the Texas Public Finance Authority to issue up to $1.0 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing or equipping new corrections facilities and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of corrections institutions.

Debt service on the bonds proposed by the resolution would depend on the amount of proceeds appropriated by the legislature and on timing of bond issuance. The debt service on $1.0 billion in general obligation bonds would amount to $90.8 million annually for 20 years. Assuming that $276.6 million out of the $1.0 billion, proposed by the resolution, were appropriated and issued during the 1994-95 biennium at a 6.0% interest rate, the probable cost of implementing the provisions of the resolution during each of the first five years following passage is estimated as follows:

Fiscal Year	Probable Debt Service Cost Out of the General Revenue Fund
1994	$8,300,000
1995	23,750,000
1996	23,750,000
1997	23,750,000
1998	23,750,000

Similar annual costs would continue for 20 years until the bonds are repaid.

The cost of publication of the resolution to the State is $60,000.

The fiscal implication to units of local government cannot be determined.

BILL ANALYSIS

S.J.R. 45 BY: WHITMIRE/HIGHTOWER

BACKGROUND:

The 72nd Texas Legislature, Second Called Session, enacted H.B. 93, which provided that the state has the duty to accept all "paper-ready" inmates in county jails by September 1, 1995. Legislation introduced in the 73rd Legislature (S.B. 532) creates a State Jail Division under the authority of the Board of Criminal Justice to oversee the development of state facilities to house state jail felons. In order to meet the September 1995 deadline, an additional 20,000 prison beds are necessary.

PURPOSE:

As proposed, S.J.R. 45 requires the submission to the voters of a constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds payable from the general revenues of the state for projects relating to facilities of corrections institutions, including youth corrections institutions.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY:

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not delegate any additional rulemaking authority to any state officer, agency, department, or institution.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS:

SECTION 1. Amends Article III, Section 49-h, Texas Constitution, by adding Subsection (e), as follows:

> (e)(1) Authorizes the legislature to authorize the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds to acquire, construct, or equip new corrections institutions, including youth corrections institutions, or to make major repairs or renovate existing facilities of those corrections institutions. Provides that this amount is in addition to the amount authorized in Subsections (a), (c), and (d) of this section.
> > (2) Provides that the provision of Subsection (a) relating to the review and approval of bonds and the provisions of Subsection (b) relating to the status of the bonds as a general obligation of the state and to the manner in which the principal and interest on the bonds are paid apply to bonds authorized under this subsection.

SECTION 2. Requires this constitutional amendment to be submitted to the voters at an election to be held on November 2, 1993, and provides the language for the ballot.

SUMMARY OF COMMITTEE ACTION:

Pursuant to an announcement on the House floor on May 4, 1993 the Committee on Corrections met in a formal meeting to consider S.J.R. 45. On May 4, 1993 the full committee voted to report S.J.R. 45, favorably, to the House with the recommendation that it do pass by the record vote of 8 Ayes, 1 Nay, 1 PNV, and 1 Absent.

In response to your request for a Fiscal Note on Senate Joint Resolution No. 45 (proposing a constitutional amendment providing for the issuance of general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping corrections institutions and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of corrections institutions) this office has determined the following:

The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment which, if adopted by the voters at an election held on November 2, 1993, would authorize the Texas Public Finance Authority to issue up to $1.0 billion in general obligation bonds for acquiring, constructing or equipping new corrections facilities and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of corrections institutions.

Debt service on the bonds proposed by the resolution would depend on the amount of proceeds appropriated by the legislature and on timing of bond issuance. The debt service on $1.0 billion in general obligation bonds would amount to $90.8 million annually for 20 years. Assuming that $276.6 million out of the $1.0 billion, proposed by the resolution, were appropriated and issued during the 1994-95 biennium at a 6.0% interest rate, the probable cost of implementing the provisions of the resolution during each of the first five years following passage is estimated as follows:

Fiscal Year	Probable Debt Service Cost Out of the General Revenue Fund
1994	$8,300,000
1995	23,750,000
1996	23,750,000
1997	23,750,000
1998	23,750,000

Similar annual costs would continue for 20 years until the bonds are repaid.

The cost of publication of the resolution to the State is $60,000.

The fiscal implication to units of local government cannot be determined.

Committee Substitute

BACKGROUND

The 72nd Texas Legislature, Second Called Session, enacted H.B. 93, which provided that the state has the duty to accept all "paper-ready" inmates in county jails by September 1, 1995. Legislation introduced in the 73rd Legislature (S.B. 532) creates a State Jail Division under the authority of the Board of Criminal Justice to oversee the development of state jail facilities to house state jail felons. In order to meet the September 1995 deadline, an additional 20,000 prison beds are necessary.

PURPOSE

As proposed, C.S.S.J.R. 45 requires the submission to the voters of a constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds payable from the general revenues of the state for projects relating to facilities of corrections institutions, including youth corrections institutions.

RULEMAKING

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not grant any additional rulemaking authority to any state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Article III, Section 49-h, Texas Constitution, by adding Subsection (e), as follows:

(e)(1) Authorizes the legislature to authorize the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds to acquire, construct, or equip new corrections institutions, including youth corrections institutions, or to make major repairs or renovate existing facilities of those corrections institutions. Provides that this amount is in addition to the amount authorized in Subsections (a), (c), and (d) of this section.

(2) Provides that the provisions of Subsection (a) relating to the review and approval of bonds and the provisions of Subsection (b) relating to the status of the bonds as a general obligation of the state and to the manner in which the principal and interest on the bonds are paid apply to bonds authorized under this subsection.

SECTION 2. Requires this constitutional amendment to be submitted to the voters at an election to be held on November 2, 1993, and provides the language for the ballot.
