ENROLLED

H.R. No. 1068

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, One of this chamber's distinguished freshmen is celebrating a birthday today, and it gives his colleagues great pleasure to recognize the Honorable John Mabry, Jr., at this time; and

WHEREAS, Now that he has reached the ripe old age of 34, Representative Mabry may finally be beyond his days of youthful underachievement; indeed, his fellow house members applaud this promising young man's decision to finally put his nose to the grindstone and actually try to make something of himself; and

WHEREAS, A 1992 graduate of Baylor University, Representative Mabry earned a law degree from Baylor Law School in 1995 and is currently employed in private practice in Waco; while he has excelled in civil litigation, family law, and criminal defense, he can often be found waxing nostalgic about his true loves: hunting, fishing, and Baylor baseball; and

WHEREAS, Though Representative Mabry is new to public office, he has nonetheless already demonstrated some regard for his fellow citizens; he has served on the board of the Baylor Waco Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to developing beneficial partnerships between individuals and businesses to enhance life in Central Texas, and he was a member of the sponsorship committee for the 2002 Cattle Baron's Ball, the largest fund-raising event for the Waco Chapter of the American Cancer Society; and

WHEREAS, Representative Mabry is a member of the State Bar of

Texas, the Waco-McLennan County Bar Association, and the Waco-McLennan County Young Lawyers Association; he is a 32nd Degree Scottish Rite Mason and a member of Baylor Lodge No. 1235, Ducks Unlimited, and the National Rifle Association; and

WHEREAS, Despite being a freshman legislator, Representative Mabry has ably served the constituents of House District 56 during the 78th Legislative Session, and as this dedicated public servant slides safely into his mid-thirties, it is readily apparent that great things can be expected from him in the years to come; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 78th Texas Legislature hereby pay tribute to the Honorable John Mabry, Jr., as he celebrates his 34th birthday and commend him for his efforts during his first legislative session; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for Representative Mabry as an expression of high regard by the Texas House of Representatives.
