STATEMENT OF VOTE

When roll call was taken today, I was away from my desk. I was present after roll call, but did not check in with the journal clerk.

Gallego

The invocation was offered by David McMurry, pastor, Grace Bible Church, Harker Heights, as follows:

Father, your word tells us in Romans 13 and in 1 Peter 2 that you have decided to govern the world through flawed and broken human beings like us. We come to you expectantly and with delight, knowing that it pleases you to use us in our weakness. Help us to rely on you.

I ask you to bless these men and women who lead the great State of Texas. Fill them with your spirit so that they would lead with wisdom and skill. Use their natural strengths to glorify yourself. Cover their weaknesses with their wonderful staff and as they compromise with each other. I also ask for your special blessing on those who lead by giving themselves in our armed services. Please watch, protect, and encourage those who serve.

Your word also tells us in Proverbs 21 that a king's heart is in your hands—that you direct it like a watercourse wherever you please. We pray that you would be pleased to do that today. We all have hearts that wander. Father, direct our hearts in spite of ourselves. We ask you to direct this house toward justice and love. Help these men and women to lead with the glory you made them for. Father, remind us that you not only ordain elected leaders as kings and queens but it was your original plan that every human being would be a king and queen over creation. Help this house lead in ways that unleashes the strength and beauty you have hardwired into every human being.

Father, your son said, "blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled." God, make us hunger. Make us thirst. Make us ache until we cannot take it anymore. I pray that you would make every one of us ache and long for you so that we cannot focus, we cannot work, until we have found our rest in you.

You are the God who loves. You are the God who delights to give good gifts to his children. You are the God who gave himself to pay for our sins. We thank you for Jesus. We thank you for your sacrifice. We come before you and ask all these things, not because we are worthy, but because he is worthy. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Delisi who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.
