Creator, redeemer, and sustainer of human life and human society, we marvel at the beautiful creation you have entrusted to us, your people, who call ourselves Texans. From the deep grandeur of Palo Duro Canyon, to the majestic shores of our Gulf Coast land, from the green forests in East Texas, to the rugged desert of Big Bend, we offer you praise and we marvel that such diversity belongs to this plot of land we have received from you. We marvel also in the people you have placed here—our friends, neighbors, and colleagues—they match the diversity and beauty of the state in which they live.

We ask your blessings on Speaker Craddick and on all of the representatives gathered in this place, their colleagues in the senate, and on our governor as they make the decision placed into their hands.

Remind us that we do not own this place, we are merely stewards of your treasure. Remind us that the people whose lives we encounter were forged in your image. Grant to us an awareness of our interdependence. Help us to see your reflection in the faces of those with whom we interact, even when we disagree. Help us to continue to strive for the best as those who have gone before us have so ably done. Amen.

The chair recognized Representative Pierson who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

HB 3928 - COMMITTEE ON CALENDARS RULE ADOPTED

Pursuant to House Rule 3, Section 5(2), and House Rule 6, Section 16(f), Representative Woolley moved to adopt the following rule governing floor consideration of HB 3928 (relating to technical changes to the revised franchise tax):

Section 1. All original amendments that will be offered during second reading consideration of the bill must be filed with the chief clerk by 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 29, 2007.

Section 2. (a) Any amendment is not in order if it causes the bill to have a net loss to any fund in any biennium.

(b) For purposes of this rule, the fiscal impact of an amendment will be determined based on estimates provided by the Legislative Budget Board with assistance from the Office of the Comptroller.

REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE SMITHEE: Mr. Keffer, during your discussion with Mr. Hill, you mentioned some substantive changes to the tax law that occurs in the bill. Could you tell the house what those substantive changes are?

REPRESENTATIVE KEFFER: Yes, in HB 3928?

SMITHEE: Yes.

KEFFER: Okay, we will go over that again, thank you, because it is important. We, on this floor, during the HB 3 debate, we made two commitments and two amendments to HB 3 that during the next interim, and working with the new comptroller and her staff, found out that there was some disagreement on what the amendment said and how they were interpreting the amendment. The first one was on the apportionment issue. The apportionment issue is businesses that do business country-wide, is that they will only be taxed on the revenue that they deal with in the State of Texas.

SMITHEE: Is that a substantive change or a nonsubstantive change?

KEFFER: That is, to me, nonsubstantive, because it is what we felt like from the very beginning, that we were not changing, and HB 3, it was my understanding that we were not changing the apportionment part of it.

SMITHEE: Okay. I just want to know what the substantive changes are.

KEFFER: The only substantive change we are making in HB 3928 is that we are raising the small business exemption from $300,000 of gross revenue to $600,000 of gross revenue.

SMITHEE: And it's your intent that that be a substantive change to the tax law, is that correct?

KEFFER: Yes, sir, it is.

SMITHEE: Alright, now why does the caption of the bill say that it relates to procedural changes, I'm sorry, technical changes?

KEFFER: Because there are some changes in there, in this bill, as you will see, that in HB 3, during the debate, there were some gray areas left that we needed to help the comptroller define. There was one thing, there was a discussion whether limited partnerships were actually under this tax situation the way the bill was originally written. We have gone back to clarify that they are, and other technical to help the comptroller in this transition from the original franchise tax to this new margin tax, and helping them do their job.

SMITHEE: So, in your opinion, there are mainly technical changes, but there are substantive changes?

KEFFER: Yes, sir, there is.

SMITHEE: Okay, now the question is, do you think there is a distinction between a technical change and a substantive change to the tax law?

KEFFER: Well, I guess that boils down to when somebody thinks of what is costing someone, but there is no change in what HB 3 originally came over, as far as how businesses are dealt with. In a lot of this, we are simply going through and clarifying what our—

SMITHEE: I understand that, but let me ask you the question one more time. Do you believe that a substantive change would fall within the category of being a technical change to the tax law? Is that your intent?

KEFFER: I don't know with your and my definition. Substantive to me is it's costing somebody more money, or is it making a big change in what the direction of the bill that we originally set out to do. In HB 3928, there is no change of direction, there is no change of intent, there is no change of what road we were on with HB 3. The only substantive, let me go back, the only thing we are adding to, and I define that as substantive, the only thing we are adding to our original HB 3 is raising the small business exemption from $300,000 gross receipt to $600,000 gross receipt.

SMITHEE: Is it your intent then that that be considered a technical change to the tax law?

KEFFER: That change, I think that would be more substantive, because we are adding that change to the original HB 3. That is something that, on the apportionment and under the net laws carried forward, those are things that my intent that were already in HB 3, already covered in HB 3 under the margin tax.

SMITHEE: Okay. So to summarize what you just said, the raising of the exemption would be something other than a technical change.

KEFFER: Yes.

SMITHEE: And that is your intent, correct?

KEFFER: Yes, that is my intent.

HB 1460 ON THIRD READING (by Haggerty)

HB 1460, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to licensing, acquisition, and regulation of manufactured housing; providing penalties.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Otto offered the following amendment to HB 1460:

Amend HB 1460, on third reading, in SECTION 2 of the bill, in added Subsection (e), Section 1201.008, Occupations Code, by striking "Notwithstanding a zoning law or any other law," and substituting "Notwithstanding a zoning law or any other law, unless prohibited by an ordinance or charter of a home-rule municipality,".

Amendment No. 2

Representative Orr offered the following amendment to Amendment No. 1:

Amend the Otto amendment to HB 1460, on third reading, on page 1, at the end of line 5, by inserting "or general law".

Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Amendment No. 1, as amended, was adopted.

HB 1460 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE ORR: Representative, when we did these amendments what we want to be sure is, if there is a hurricane or a tornado, what would happen in those cases where we're overriding the zoning?

REPRESENTATIVE OTTO: Mr. Orr, what we are intending is that if you are replacing a manufactured home as a result of a disaster that that does not count. If you have an ordinance that allows for a certain number of replacements, as I do in my home rule city charter, in an ordinance there, that would not count as one of those replacements. If a hurricane or a tornado wiped out your manufactured house then you would be allowed to replace that residence.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Orr moved to print remarks between Representative Otto and Representative Orr.

The motion prevailed.

HB 2823 ON THIRD READING

(by Bohac, et al.)

HB 2823, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to provisional voting by a person who applied for an early voting ballot by mail.

HB 2823 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE VEASEY: I just have a couple of clarifying questions for you. If a voter brings their mail ballot in to the polling place today and they say that they received a mail ballot at my house, but I'm here at the polling place, can I go ahead and vote? Is that—

REPRESENTATIVE BOHAC: You'd have to drive all the way to the county clerk's office, or the voting clerk's office, sign an affidavit, and then come all the way back. We're going to say that if you show up at the polling place, you can do that if you want to, or you can go ahead and vote provisionally. So this gives you another option so you don't have to drive all over the city at 7 o'clock in the afternoon when the polls are closing.

VEASEY: Right, but if you bring your ballot in, and say, I need to vote, and you send me a ballot to my house, but I've decided to—

BOHAC: Oh yeah, you can vote at that particular moment.

VEASEY: Okay, good, so that doesn't change. Currently if a voter does not have a mail ballot or never received the mail ballot, they must go to the county elections office and complete the process to cancel the ballot. Once they've done so they may go to their polling place with a copy of that cancellation and their vote will be accepted as a normal vote. That's the same?

BOHAC: I'm just adding a second way to do it, an easier way to do it.

VEASEY: Okay, in a situation stipulated by your bill cast a provisional ballot is it your intent that the clerk or the elections administrator will do everything in their power to check the list of mail ballots that were received, to verify that the person's ballot was not cast and then, subsequently, count the provisional ballot to insure their vote was counted?

BOHAC: I'm sorry, I didn't hear the question.

VEASEY: Let me read this one to you because this was a bit longer, that's why I wrote it down. Before a voter, in the situation stipulated by your bill, casts a provisional ballot before this bill was filed, is it your intent that the clerk or the elections administrator does everything in their power to check the lists of mail ballots that were received, verify this person's mail ballot was not cast, and then subsequently count the provisional ballot to insure that their vote is counted?

BOHAC: Whatever's current law is what the current law is. I'm not touching that aspect of the law.

VEASEY: Okay, good.

Amend HB 3732 (2nd Reading Engrossment) by striking page 15, line 6, through page 16, line 1, and substituting the following:

(d) To qualify for the tax rate reduction under this section, the operator must apply for a certification from:

(1) the Railroad Commission of Texas, if carbon dioxide used in the project is to be sequestered in a reservoir productive of oil or natural gas;

(2) the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, if carbon dioxide used in the project is to be sequestered in a geological formation other than a reservoir productive of oil or natural gas; or

(3) both the Railroad Commission of Texas and the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality if both Subdivisions (1) and (2) apply.

(e) An agency to which an operator applies for a certification under Subsection (d) may issue the certification only if the agency finds that, based on substantial evidence, there is a reasonable expectation that:

(1) the operator's planned sequestration program will ensure that at least 99 percent of the carbon dioxide sequestered as required by Subsection (a)(4) will remain sequestered for at least 1,000 years; and

(2) the operator's planned sequestration program will include appropriately designed monitoring and verification measures that will be employed for a period sufficient to demonstrate whether the sequestration program is performing as expected.

(e-1) The tax rate reduction does not apply if the operator's sequestration program or the operator's monitoring and verification measures differ substantially from the planned program described by Subsection (e), and the operator shall refund the difference between the amount of the tax paid under this section and the amount that would have been imposed in the absence of this section.

POSTPONED BUSINESS

The following bills were laid before the house as postponed business:

HB 1801 ON SECOND READING
(by Zerwas)

HB 1801, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the date by which a prosecuting attorney may appeal certain orders, rulings, or sentences in a criminal case.

HB 1801 was read second time earlier today and was postponed until this time.

HB 1801 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Dunnam raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1801 under Rule 4, Section 18(a) of the House Rules on the grounds that the committee minutes are incomplete and submitted the following statement:

House Rule 4, Section 18(a) states, "For each committee, including a Calendars Committee, the chair, or the member acting as chair, shall keep complete minutes of the proceedings in committee, which shall include. . .the time and place of each meeting of the committee," House Rule 4, § 18(a)(1) (80th Leg. 2007). Subcommittees are governed by the same rules of procedure as are committees, House Rule 4, § 45 (80th Leg. 2007).

The minutes for the April 2, 2007, meeting contain the following sentence: "On March 29, 2007, pursuant to a suspension of the 5-day posting rule and permission to meet while the house is in session, during reading and referral of bills, the House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence, Subcommittee on Criminal Procedure, met in a public hearing and was called to order by the chair." The subcommittee actually met on April 2, 2007. As a result of this factual error, the minutes are inaccurate. Inaccuracy in the minutes of a public hearing are especially harmful to this body because they constitute the only written record of house committee proceedings. As such, they should be corrected and held to the highest standards of accuracy.

For the foregoing reasons, the point of order should be sustained.

The speaker sustained the point of order.

HB 1801 was returned to the Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence.
