Sec. 683. COURT'S INITIATION OF GUARDIANSHIP PROCEEDINGS.

(a) If a court has probable cause to believe that a person domiciled or found in the county in which the court is located is an incapacitated person, and the person does not have a guardian in this state, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem or court investigator to investigate the person's conditions and circumstances to determine whether the person is an incapacitated person and whether a guardianship is necessary. If after the investigation the guardian ad litem or court investigator believes that the person is an incapacitated person and that a guardianship is necessary, the guardian ad litem or court investigator shall ~~and~~ file an application for the appointment of a guardian of the person or estate, or both, for ~~of~~ the person ~~[believed to be incapacitated]~~.

SECTION 6. Section 687(a), Texas Probate Code, is amended to read as follows:

(a) The court may not grant an application to create a guardianship for an incapacitated person, other than a minor, person whose alleged incapacity is mental retardation, or person for whom it is necessary to have a guardian appointed only to receive funds from a governmental source, unless the applicant presents to the court a written letter or certificate from a physician licensed in this state that is dated not earlier than the 120th day before the date of the filing of the application and based on an examination the physician performed not earlier than the 120th day before the date of the filing of the application. SECTION 15. Sections 761(c) and (f), Texas Probate Code, are amended to read as follows:

(c) The court may remove a guardian on its own motion, or on the complaint of an interested person, after the guardian has been cited by personal service to answer at a time and place set in the notice, when:

SB 324 ON THIRD READING
(Chisum - House Sponsor)

SB 324, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to contingent payment clauses in certain construction contracts.

SB 324 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE Y. DAVIS: I'm trying to understand what this does to subcontractors. What does this bill do to subcontractors? I had a couple persons contact me relative to this, so I want to understand how subcontractors are treated under this.

REPRESENTATIVE OTTO: I don't have the bill folder in front of me, I did look at this bill yesterday. What I understand was, this was agreed-to language between the contracting trade association, with subcontractors, to spell out when a subcontractor could look to the contractor for payment and when he should not, in those cases where he's not getting paid, and it specified in certain instances where the general contractor is still going to remain liable to the sub in some cases, even if he isn't getting paid. In some cases he will not.

Y. DAVIS: And because my subcontractors probably weren't a part of that agreed-to language, I just wanted to talk a little bit about their protection, because one of the things we continue to hear from our subcontractors is how they don't get paid. Also, I'm concerned that we don't put additional burden on contractors. So I want to understand if this bill passes, does it limit subcontractors from getting payments for services they provided?

OTTO: No, I do not believe this bill limits subcontractors. What it addresses is who they should look to in order to get paid for their work.

Y. DAVIS: And because a few sessions ago I had a bill, because there were subcontractors who did not get paid, or couldn't get paid, because there were disputes between the general contractor and the entities that they were contracted with. The subcontractor became a victim of their skirmishes, and so I'm trying to make sure that we haven't made that more difficult for subcontractors.

OTTO: I do not think this bill has made that more difficult, where the dispute is between the general contractor and their customer.

Y. DAVIS: Would the subcontractor's payment be delayed and/or is there a period of time that at some point they can no longer be secondary to the dispute, so that if the work that they performed that's a part of the general contract, the work that they performed is not a part of the dispute? Will they have problems getting paid for the work they've done?

OTTO: I can't say unequivocally that it's not going to be delayed, because it's going to depend on the nature of the facts that are there before them. But we're not changing law here, about whether or not they're still able to get their M&M liens on property when they do work.

Y. DAVIS: Let me ask you one other question, Mr. Otto. One other issue that came up relative to the subcontractors and the roles that they have, with regard to their payments and stuff, when this bill passes, I know that there was some language about how long the dispute could go on before it had to go to, before subcontractors could receive their money. Is that correct?

OTTO: I'm not advised about the time limit.

Y. DAVIS: I guess I just want some assurances that this bill doesn't do anything to hurt contractors meeting their obligations with subcontractors and the work that they do, so that we're not creating that kind of imbalance.

OTTO: Yvonne, it's my understanding that this bill actually will improve the situation with subcontractors in these cases about their ability to get paid. It's in no way diminishing their capacity to get paid for their work.

Amendment No. 20

Representative Riddle offered the following amendment to SB 792:

Amend SB 792 in SECTION 3.01 of the bill in proposed Subsection (e), Section 223.210, Transportation Code (House committee printing page 7, line 3), between "project" and the period, by inserting "other than the F2 Study Segment of that project".

AMENDMENT NO. 20 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE RIDDLE: When I went to you a little while ago and told you about this amendment and we discussed the fact that, with the moratorium, this would hold the construction off. Yes, it does have something to do with funding, but it also has to do with the beginning of construction, that it would give time for us to determine the location. Did I not share with you that my constituents have offered alternative routes? They're not opposed to the Grand Parkway in concept, did I not share that with you?

REPRESENTATIVE W. SMITH: You have indicated to me that an alternate route had been looked at, yes.

RIDDLE: Well, that they had offered an alternate route. And did I not share with you that they were not opposed to Grand Parkway in concept, they were opposed to the northernmost location of the F-2 segment, and that we needed more time, and that the construction, under the moratorium, that that would not go forward? You just indicated that that had nothing to do with it. Did you intend to say that?

W. SMITH: That it has nothing not do with what? Say that again, I didn't understand.

RIDDLE: The construction. You said it had more to do with the finance and not construction, the beginning of construction.

W. SMITH: No, it has to do, from what you talked with me about, it has to do with an alignment study, and of course where you put those makes a difference on how much they cost. But your concern seems to be more of the location, other than the issue of the financing.

RIDDLE: But the moratorium, did I not share with you, that that would give time in order for a better location to be determined?

W. SMITH: Yes, you did.

RIDDLE: That is what this is about, is giving my district more time so that their voice will be heard, that their neighborhoods will not be destroyed, that the community will not be destroyed, and that we can determine a better location.
