Conscious that we are lowly in your sight, we humbly ask that you come to us and remain with us and enlighten our minds and our hearts. Most especially, we pray for these elected officials who represent the people of the great State of Texas. Guide them, Lord, by your wisdom and support them by your awesome power.

Indeed, you desire justice for all people. Bless this legislature and help them to be bold in upholding the rights of the ones they represent and to be just and fair in their deeds. Let them not be guided by ignorance, selfishness, malice, nor greed but rather guide them in righteousness and in truth through a spirit of service toward their fellow men and women. May they be inspired throughout this session to do your will to bring about effective good for our state. And at the end of the day, let their decisions be pleasing in your sight.
