God of abundance, we give you thanks for the many gifts that you have so graciously given, especially the gift of land that makes up this great State of Texas. We pray thanks for the rains that fell yesterday and humbly ask for more.

You have called these servants for the honor of representing the people of this state and we pray for your divine guidance to direct and prosper their deliberations for the common good. We ask for your special blessings upon the women and men who protect and defend this state and country. We pray for President Barack Obama, Governor Rick Perry, and all those who serve the people of the United States of America. Direct the work of this session and the people here gathered. Let them ever be restless for your work and your will and not their own. Bless us now to be a blessing. Amen.
