The invocation was offered by Deacon Ron Walker, Diocese of Austin, Austin, as follows:

Good and loving Father, today, on this holy day, we celebrate the lives of your saints. We recall the story of that third grade schoolgirl who responded to the question of what is a saint by saying that a saint is someone through whom God's light shines. We recall that in response to another question of how God had revealed such a beautiful truth to her, this young girl recounted that she sees the saints come alive as she sits in her church and sees the light that comes through those windows.

Dear God, let your light shine through this assembly of legislators today and always. Keep their minds, hearts, souls, and intentions directed toward the goal of becoming a window through which your goodness, holiness, and mercy may shine. We thank you for your presence in our lives and for allowing us to know that you are truly present. We acknowledge that we come to know you more intimately as we bless and serve the poor; when we are meek and humble; when we truly hunger for righteousness; when we show mercy; when we live with clean hearts; when we work for peace; and when we suffer for your sake. Your presence is the summit and the entirety of all that we seek from you. Be merciful on us, O Lord, as we ask this of you and ask for the prayers of your saints. With humble and contrite hearts we are forever and faithfully yours.

The chair recognized Representative Cole who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

Angela's creativity knew no bounds. Her impact reached across continents, inspiring minds and fostering connections.
