Absent, Excused — Smithee.

The invocation was offered by Darryl W. Crain, pastor, Restoration Centre, San Antonio, as follows:

Lord, we enter your presence today by, through, and in the name of the only one by which men, cities, states, and nations can be saved—the matchless, incomparable name of Jesus the Christ. Today, Father, in that name I speak blessings. I bless this great body established by your hand to be led by you, influenced by you, and let them be known by you. I bless them to understand the divine mandate they are under, conveyed clearly in Paul's epistle to the Romans. This timeless text gives absolute clarity when it articulates that "there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are instituted by God." It continues, "for government is God's servant for your good." I bless them, this esteemed congregation of servants, with the understanding that they have been chosen by your mighty hand to invoke your will upon a people you love. I bless them with divine revelation today that they are your ministers.

I bless you to hear God's voice clearly in your spiritual ear that reaffirms you are more than just a member of a party, more than just a freshman or an incumbent, so much more than a representative of your district. You are a minister of almighty God, called for such a time as this. I bless you to open your spiritual eyes and see that God is not a democrat; he is not a republican. And your loyalty is not to someone else's agenda, a party platform plank, or a path to advancement. I bless you with loyalty to your calling, your constituents, and your ministry. I bless you with the courage it takes to remain in this chamber. I bless you with ears to hear and eyes to see your divine mandate and receive your divine mantle which will allow you from this day forward to walk in your calling, feel the joy of service, experience the compassion of ministry, and discern the anointing of your leadership ordained by God himself. I bless you to live above complaints. I bless you to live free from fear. I bless you to know beyond the shadow of a doubt that if God be for you, then who can be against you?

This is your time. The time for political parties dominating personal conviction is coming to an end. You are not primarily a democrat or a republican. You are a servant of the most high God, and I bless you to fulfill that destiny in the face of furious enemies, fake friendships, and a mission that sometimes seems endless, thankless, and hopeless. I bless you to remember that you are a man of God. You are a woman of God. You are God's minister. Lord, we live in the greatest nation in history and in the greatest state in that blessed nation. Bless these men and women today with your presence so that they may live to that lofty reality. I bless them today with you, for in you are all blessings found.
