Almighty God, please open our hearts so that our lips may sing Your praises. Help us pray truthfully, sincerely, and wholeheartedly. God, You are the source of blessing for all the goodness that is bestowed upon us. You sustain us, protect us, and infuse us daily with a fresh breath of life. Our Father, our king, may our eyes only see goodness in others, may our ears hear no evil, and our lips never cease from singing Your praises. May our minds be filled with wisdom to find the right path, and may our hearts be filled with the courage to walk upon it. May You continue to shine light and truth upon the leaders, judges, and all elected officials of our wonderful country and the State of Texas. May You grant health and prosperity to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and every individual that has dedicated his or her career to better the lives of other human beings. May their families be showered with happiness and everlasting joy. Help us achieve true faith, a faith that empowers us to cross the narrow bridge called life, a faith that lets us make bold decisions, and a faith that guides us to true meaningful living. We cannot thank You sufficiently for all the kindness that You've bestowed upon us, but in the words of King David, I will praise God while I live, I will make music to my God while I exist. Let the actions of our day express the true gratitude that we feel, and let our achievements be the sweetest song of appreciation. Amen.

SENATE BILL 23 ON THIRD READING

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 28, Nays 1.

Nays: Wentworth.

Absent-excused: Gallegos, Uresti.

Reason for Vote

Senator Wentworth submitted the following reason for vote on suspension of the Constitutional Three-day Rule:

I cast a "No" vote on the procedural motion to suspend the Constitutional Rule requiring that bills be read on three several days in order to take up and consider CSSB 23, because in my judgment no circumstance exists in this case to justify the extraordinary act of suspending a requirement of the Texas Constitution. The suspension of this Constitutional Rule has the direct and immediate effect of denying the people of Texas knowledge and notice of the passage of this measure until it has already been finally passed on third reading. Were we to have followed the requirement of the Texas Constitution, third reading and a vote on CSSB 23 would have occurred on the next legislative day, allowing for Texans to have learned through news reports of our second reading vote exactly what we had tentatively passed.

Third reading and a vote on the next legislative day would also have allowed our professional staff an opportunity overnight to make sure any amendments passed on second reading are technically correct.

/s/Jeff Wentworth

All Members are deemed to have voted "Yea" on the passage to engrossment except as follows:

Absent-excused: Gallegos, Uresti.

SENATE BILL 959 ON THIRD READING

Senator Shapleigh moved that Senate Rule 7.18 and the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that SB 959 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 28, Nays 1.

Nays: Wentworth.

Absent-excused: Gallegos, Uresti.

Reason for Vote

Senator Wentworth submitted the following reason for vote on suspension of the Constitutional Three-day Rule:

I cast a "No" vote on the procedural motion to suspend the Constitutional Rule requiring that bills be read on three several days in order to take up and consider SB 959, because in my judgment no circumstance exists in this case to justify the extraordinary act of suspending a requirement of the Texas Constitution. Nays: Wentworth.

Absent-excused: Gallegos, Uresti.

Reason for Vote

Senator Wentworth submitted the following reason for vote on suspension of the Constitutional Three-day Rule:

I cast a "No" vote on the procedural motion to suspend the Constitutional Rule requiring that bills be read on three several days in order to take up and consider HB 1518, because in my judgment no circumstance exists in this case to justify the extraordinary act of suspending a requirement of the Texas Constitution. The suspension of this Constitutional Rule has the direct and immediate effect of denying the people of Texas knowledge and notice of the passage of this measure until it has already been finally passed on third reading. Were we to have followed the requirement of the Texas Constitution, third reading and a vote on HB 1518 would have occurred on the next legislative day, allowing for Texans to have learned through news reports of our second reading vote exactly what we had tentatively passed.

Third reading and a vote on the next legislative day would also have allowed our professional staff an opportunity overnight to make sure any amendments passed on second reading are technically correct.

SENATE BILL 1700 ON THIRD READING

Senator Shapiro moved that Senate Rule 7.18 and the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that CSSB 1700 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 28, Nays 1.

Nays: Wentworth.

Absent-excused: Gallegos, Uresti.

Reason for Vote

Senator Wentworth submitted the following reason for vote on suspension of the Constitutional Three-day Rule:

I cast a "No" vote on the procedural motion to suspend the Constitutional Rule requiring that bills be read on three several days in order to take up and consider CSSB 1700, because in my judgment no circumstance exists in this case to justify the extraordinary act of suspending a requirement of the Texas Constitution. The suspension of this Constitutional Rule has the direct and immediate effect of denying the people of Texas knowledge and notice of the passage of this measure until it has already been finally passed on third reading. Were we to have followed the requirement of the Texas Constitution, third reading and a vote on CSSB 1700 would have occurred on the next legislative day, allowing for Texans to have learned through news reports of our second reading vote exactly what we had tentatively passed. Third reading and a vote on the next legislative day would also have allowed our professional staff an opportunity overnight to make sure any amendments passed on second reading are technically correct.
