

BILL ANALYSIS

C.S.H.B. 1377
By: Davis, Sarah
General Investigating & Ethics
Committee Report (Substituted)

BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

Interested parties are concerned that the amount of required reporting relating to held or acquired stock shares on personal financial statements filed with the Texas Ethics Commission is cumbersome to the commission. The parties are also concerned about a lack of guidance as to how long an individual who files such a statement is required to maintain a record of the statement. C.S.H.B. 1377 seeks to address these concerns by streamlining the stock reporting requirements and establishing record retention requirements.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE IMPACT

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not expressly create a criminal offense, increase the punishment for an existing criminal offense or category of offenses, or change the eligibility of a person for community supervision, parole, or mandatory supervision.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, department, agency, or institution.

ANALYSIS

C.S.H.B. 1377 amends the Government Code to limit the applicability of the requirement that a financial statement filed with the Texas Ethics Commission by a state officer, a candidate for an elected office, or a state party chair include identification by name and the category of the number of shares of stock of any business entity held or acquired to such identification of the greatest number of shares of stock of a nonpublicly traded business entity. The bill also includes among the required components of such a financial statement identification by stock symbol and the category of the number of shares of stock of any publicly traded corporation held. The bill requires each individual who files such a financial statement with the commission to maintain a record of the information that is necessary for filing the financial statement and to preserve the record for at least three years beginning on the filing deadline for the financial statement containing the information in the record.

EFFECTIVE DATE

September 1, 2017.

COMPARISON OF ORIGINAL AND SUBSTITUTE

While C.S.H.B. 1377 may differ from the original in minor or nonsubstantive ways, the following comparison is organized and formatted in a manner that indicates the substantial differences between the introduced and committee substitute versions of the bill.

INTRODUCED

SECTION 1. Section 572.023(b), Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The account of financial activity consists of:

(1) a list of all sources of occupational income, identified by employer, or if self-employed, by the nature of the occupation, including identification of a person or other organization from which the individual or a business in which the individual has a substantial interest received a fee as a retainer for a claim on future services in case of need, as distinguished from a fee for services on a matter specified at the time of contracting for or receiving the fee, if professional or occupational services are not actually performed during the reporting period equal to or in excess of the amount of the retainer, and the category of the amount of the fee;

(2) identification by name and the category of the greatest number of shares of stock of any nonpublicly traded business entity held or acquired, and if sold, the category of the amount of net gain or loss realized from the sale;

(2-a) identification by stock symbol shares of stock of any publicly traded corporation held;

(3) a list of all bonds, notes, and other commercial paper held or acquired, and if sold, the category of the amount of net gain or loss realized from the sale;
