S.J.R No. 27

Senate Joint Resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to abolish certain county offices in certain counties.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. Article XVI, Section 44, of the Texas Constitution is amended to read as follows:

"Section 44. (a) Except as otherwise provided by [Subsection (b) and Subsection (c) of] this section, the Legislature shall prescribe the duties and provide for the election by the qualified voters of each county in this State, of a County Treasurer and a County Surveyor, who shall have an office at the county seat, and hold their office for four years, and until their successors are qualified; and shall have such compensation as may be provided by law.

(b) The office of County Treasurer in the counties of Tarrant and Bee is abolished and all the powers, duties, and functions of the office in each of these counties are transferred to the County Auditor or to the officer who succeeds to the auditor's functions. The office of County Treasurer in the counties of Bexar and Collin are abolished and all the powers, duties, and functions of the office in each of these counties are transferred to the County Clerk. However, the office of County Treasurer shall be abolished in the counties covered by this subsection only after a local election has been held in each county and the proposition 'to abolish the elective office of county treasurer' has passed by a majority of those persons voting in said election.

(c) The office of County Treasurer in Andrews County is abolished and all the powers, duties, and functions of that office are transferred to the County Auditor of that county or to the officer who succeeds to the auditor's functions.

(d) The office of County Treasurer in El Paso County is abolished. The Commissioners Court of the county may employ or contract with a qualified person or may designate another county officer to perform any of the functions that would have been performed by the County Treasurer if the office had not been abolished. However, the office of County Treasurer in El Paso County is abolished under this subsection only if, at the statewide election at which this amendment is submitted to the voters, a majority of the voters of El Paso County voting on the question at that election favor the amendment.

(e) The office of County Surveyor in the counties of Denton, Randall, Collin, Dallas, El Paso, and Henderson is abolished upon the approval of the abolition by a majority of the qualified voters of the respective county voting on the question at an election that the Commissioners Court of the county may call. If the election is called, the Commissioners Court shall order the ballot at the election to be printed for voting for or against the proposition: 'Abolishing the office of county surveyor.' Each qualified voter of the county is entitled to vote in the election. If the office of County Surveyor is abolished under this subsection, the maps, field notes, and other records in the custody of the County Surveyor are transferred to the County Clerk of the county. After abolition, the Commissioners Court may employ or contract with a qualified person to perform any of the functions that would have been performed by the County Surveyor if the office had not been abolished.

(f) The office of County Treasurer in Andrews County is abolished under Subsection (e) of this section on the adoption of the constitutional amendment that added that subsection and that was proposed by Senate Joint Resolution 27 of the 69th Legislature, Regular Session, 1985. The office of County Treasurer in El Paso County is abolished under Subsection (d) of this section on January 1, 1986, if the conditions of that subsection are met. If that office in El Paso County is not abolished, Subsection (d) of this section expires January 1, 1986. This subsection expires January 2, 1986."
