Committee Report (Substituted)

DIGEST

Texas spent more than $7.3 billion for Medicaid services and $1.3 billion on financial assistance and food stamp programs in fiscal year 1995, yet fraud may account for as much as 10 percent of all Medicaid, financial assistance, and food stamp claims. Even if Texas loses only a fraction of this amount to fraud, the loss represents a serious, ongoing drain of public resources. Successful fraud control efforts demand strong referral and detection programs, an effective investigative function, and appropriate punishments.

This legislation provides a package of reforms intended to improve the state's ability to combat fraudulent acts committed against publicly funded programs. This bill will centralize and streamline fraud referral, investigation, and prosecution efforts under the Health and Human Services Commission's newly-created Office of Investigations and Enforcement; ensure appropriate use of Medicaid-funded services and equipment; tighten provider enrollment processes through the use of background checks and on-site inspections; require health and human services agencies to use advanced fraud-detection technologies based on the success of the comptroller's Medicaid Fraud Detection project; add a state qui tam cause of action to prosecute fraudulent Medicaid providers; provide additional controls for fraud and abuse in Medicaid managed care; and enact stiffer penalties for fraud, especially for those acts of fraud that harm children.

PURPOSE

As proposed, C.S.S.B. 30 establishes fraud and improper payments under the state Medicaid program and other welfare programs, creates a private cause of action for false claims for certain government payments, and creates a criminal offense while providing penalties.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

Rulemaking authority is granted to the Department of Human Services in SECTIONS 1.01, 2.01-2.04, 3.01, 3.02, and 5.01 (Sections 22.0254(c), 32.024(t), 32.024(u), 32.0321(a), 32.0322(b), 32.039(u) and (v), 32.046(a), and 23.016, Human Resources Code); to the Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) in SECTION 1.05 (Section 531.047(a), Government Code) and SECTION 2.06(a); to the secretary of state in SECTION 1.07(c); to HHSC and each agency operating part of the state Medicaid program in SECTION 2.07(c); and to the board of a state agency that operates part of the Medicaid program in SECTION 4.06 (Section 36.005(b), Human Resources Code) of this bill.
