DIGEST

Currently, substitute teachers for public schools are eligible for unemployment compensation benefits between assignments. School districts are considered reimbursing employers and are liable for the full amount of unemployment claims made by a former employee. This bill would disqualify substitute teachers from receiving unemployment benefits if the individual receives written notification that the position is temporary and there is no reasonable assurance that the individual will be offered employment on more than a day-to-day basis.

PURPOSE

As proposed, S.B. 70 would disqualify substitute teachers from receiving unemployment benefits if the individual receives written notification that the position is temporary and there is no reasonable assurance that the individual will be offered employment on more than a day-to-day basis.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
