DIGEST

Currently, local law enforcement agencies and Texas correctional personnel report a rising trend in the number of prison gangs who are recruiting members outside of the once-traditional prison environment. Older criminal gang members oftentimes recruit younger children to further the criminal activities of the gang in order to insulate themselves from prosecution. This bill creates a new offense if a person knowingly causes, encourages, recruits, or solicits another person to become a member of a criminal street gang, and as a condition of initiation or membership, requires the commission of any conduct which constitutes a felony.

PURPOSE

As proposed, S.B. 1579 creates an offense for soliciting membership in a criminal street gang.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
