DIGEST

Currently, Texas law prohibits a person from operating or towing an open-bed vehicle on a public street or highway if a child younger than the age of 12 is riding in the bed of a truck, and the vehicle is being driven at a speed of more than 35 miles per hour. Statistics compiled by the Texas Department of Public Safety indicate that 1988 and 1993, on average, 452 injuries and 14 deaths of children under 18 occurred while the children were riding in the bed of a pickup. S.B. 411 prohibits a child younger than 18 years of age from riding in the back of a truck or trailer driven at any speed.

PURPOSE

As proposed, S.B. 411 prohibits the operation of a vehicle with a child in an open bed of the vehicle or in the open bed of a trailer being towed by the vehicle.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

Deletes provision that the truck must be traveling at a speed greater than 35 miles per hour.
