DIGEST

H.B. 2335, 75th Legislature, made several changes in the operation of crime control and prevention districts; however, further changes are desired by crime control and prevention districts, including extending the district continuation renewal period to large cities; allowing the city council members to serve as directors of the district; clarifying administrative procedure laws; and providing a solution for a district that is not continued by voters. S.B. 624 would clarify existing law on crime control and prevention districts, and would establish alternatives for renewal elections.
