DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Under current law, the Employees Retirement System of Texas (ERS) does not provide benefits to the surviving spouses and minor children (survivor) of state peace officers or employees of the institutional division or state jail division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (employees) killed in the line of duty, and who have not yet vested in ERS at the time of death. Providing survivor benefits to the beneficiaries of deceased officers and employees would help to ease the financial burden that compounds a surviving family's emotional difficulties. H.B. 877 provides survivor benefits for the families of state peace officers and employees killed in the line of duty.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

Provides that the surviving spouse is entitled to continue to receive monthly payments under this section until the earlier of the date the surviving spouse remarries, the date the surviving spouse becomes eligible for retirement under an employees' retirement plan, or the date the surviving spouse becomes eligible for Social Security benefits.
