DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Currently, the Juvenile Probation Commission (JPC) is included as an agency under the Health and Human Services Commission (commission). However, JPC has limited health and human services (HHS) interactions and works closely with only a couple of HHS agencies. JPC is subject to numerous policy and operational requirements implemented by the Health and Human Services Commission for the group of HHS agencies. Further, JPC finds that it must attend numerous meetings that affect HHS agencies that are not relevant to JPC except for their oversight attachment to the commission. As proposed, S.B. 1589 removes JPC from the Health and Human Services Commission umbrella.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION 2. Amends Section 2166.553(b), Government Code, to change a reference from the "Texas Commission for the Deaf and Hearing Impaired" to the "Texas Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing." Makes a conforming change.
