AUTHOR'S/SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Currently, the title of the second highest position in the Office of the Secretary of State is the assistant secretary of state. The assistant secretary of state is regularly required to act in an official capacity for the secretary of state, serves as senior advisor and liaison to the governor for Texas border and Mexican affairs, and serves as chief international protocol officer for Texas. Taking into consideration the diplomatic duties associated with the office and the unfortunate acronym for the title, H.B. 297 changes the title of the assistant secretary of state to the deputy secretary of state.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
