AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Since the founding of the United States through modern times, there has been a link to God in the political and social culture of the United States. References to God have been included in important documents such as the Declaration of Independence and the Emancipation Proclamation, and in speeches from presidents such as Franklin Delano Roosevelt to the American public. President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed legislation in 1954 to affirm this link by placing the phrase "under God" in the Pledge of Allegiance. Placing the phrase "under God" in the Texas state pledge may best acknowledge this heritage

H.B. 1034 provides that the pledge of allegiance to the state flag reads as follows: "Honor the Texas flag; I pledge allegiance to thee, Texas, one state under God and indivisible."

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Section 3100.101, Government Code, to provide that the pledge of allegiance to the state flag is: "Honor the Texas flag; I pledge allegiance to thee, Texas, one state under God and indivisible," rather than "...one and indivisible."

SECTION 2. Effective date: upon passage or September 1, 2007.
