AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Currently, if an individual or entity can claim statutory exemption for filing their campaign finance reports electronically or if the individual or entity chooses to turn in an electronic form of those reports by computer diskette, the individual or entity must send the reports by mail. Even when sent prior to the prescribed deadline, it may be days before the reports are accessible to the public. A requirement that those entities who send their reports by mail hand deliver their files or have them sent overnight to the Texas Ethics Commission (TEC) would promote fairness between entities and individuals filing these reports.

H.B. 27 requires individuals and entities who send their campaign finance reports to TEC by mail to either hand deliver the reports or have them sent by overnight delivery.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION 2. Makes application of this Act prospective.

SECTION 3. Effective date: September 1, 2007.
