AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Under current law, not all employees of a municipality with a population of 650,000 or more that operates under a city manager form of government are able to negotiate wages or working conditions. In particular, firefighters and police officers of the City of Austin are currently covered by meet and confer and/or collective bargaining legislation, but there are no provisions covering the employment matters of Austin's other municipal employees.

As proposed, S.B. 1183 grants public employee associations in a municipality with a population of 650,000 or more that operates under a city manager form of government the right to meet and confer with a public employer over issues such as wages, hours, working conditions, and all other terms and conditions of employment. This bill also prohibits strikes and work stoppages by employees who participate in such organizations.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
