AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

During the 80th Legislature, Regular Session, 2007, the legislature passed legislation prohibiting the publication of federal and state judges' residential information in public records such as voter registration applications, voter rolls, and property appraisal records. This law is intended to protect these judges from retaliation by offenders whom they have sentenced. However, the information of judges' spouses was not given the same protection, weakening the intent of the law.

S.B. 281 amends current law relating to the confidentiality of the home address information of the spouses of certain federal judges and certain state judges.
