AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Under current law, a higher education tuition exemption is available for former foster youth until age 21. Also, review teams that evaluate Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) casework and decision-making related to investigations by DFPS of child abuse and neglect are limited to five members and can only have parents assigned to the teams.

As proposed, S.B. 493 requires DFPS to modify practices to improve outcomes for foster youth that are currently in the system, and for those that have aged out. This legislation requires DFPS to consider alternatives to keeping a foster youth in permanent managing conservatorship until they age out of the system, increases the age for the higher education tuition exemption for former foster youth from age 21 to 25, and includes child welfare advocates on review teams for child abuse and neglect cases.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION 1. Amends Section 54.211, Education Code, as follows:

Sec. 54.211. EXEMPTIONS FOR STUDENTS IN FOSTER OR OTHER RESIDENTIAL CARE. (a) Exempts a student from the payment of tuition and fees authorized in this chapter if the student was in the conservatorship of the Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS), rather than in foster care or other residential care under DFPS, on the day preceding the student's 18th birthday; on or after the day of the student's 14th birthday, if the student was also eligible for adoption on or after that day; on the day the student graduated from high school or received the equivalent of a high school diploma; or on the day preceding the date the student is adopted, or the date permanent managing conservatorship of the student is awarded to a person other than the student's parent; and enrolls in an institution of higher education as an undergraduate student not later than the student's 25th, rather than 21st, birthday. Deletes existing text requiring that the student enroll in an institution of higher education as an undergraduate student not later than the third anniversary of the date the student was discharged from the foster or other residential care, the date the student graduated from high school, or the date the student received the equivalent of a high school diploma, whichever date is earliest. Makes nonsubstantive changes.

Makes a conforming change.
