AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Texas concealed handgun license (CHL) holders must meet strict requirements. In order to qualify for a CHL, an applicant must be age 21 or older and have a clean criminal history record free from felonies and certain lesser offenses, among other requirements such as being free from chemical dependency and specified mental health afflictions. Should those prerequisites be met, an applicant must successfully complete a course of study and demonstrate shooting proficiency. CHL holders are generally careful and law abiding Texans. Statistics from the Department of Public Safety of the State of Texas confirm that CHL holders commit fewer crimes than the general public.

Under current law, some Texas colleges and universities have policies that prohibit a CHL holder in attendance from storing a handgun in his or her locked vehicle while on campus. S.B. 1907 prohibits a public or private institution of higher education from adopting or enforcing a provision prohibiting a CHL holder attending the institution from storing a legal handgun in his or her locked vehicle while parked on campus.

As proposed, S.B. 1907 amends current law relating to the transportation and storage of concealed handguns and ammunition by students in vehicles on the campuses of institutions of higher education.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
