AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Under the current Tax Code, land that is leased to certain schools remains subject to property tax even if the land is used for educational or school-related purposes.

S.J.R. 30 is the companion constitutional amendment to S.B. 545, which amends Chapter 11 of the Tax Code by adding the newly created Section 11.211 (Real Property Leased To Certain Schools), to include a property tax exemption for real property leased to certain schools that are used exclusively by the school for educational functions and are necessary for the operation of the school.

S.J.R. 30 amends Section 2(1), Article VIII of the Texas Constitution to constitutionally allow for a property tax exemption for real property leased for use as a school, as defined by the Tax Code or any successor statute, for educational purposes.

Under the temporary provision section of S.J.R. 30, if approved by the legislature and the voters during a constitutional amendment election, the effective date of S.J.R. 30 begins with the tax year beginning January 1, 2016.

S.J.R. 30 proposes a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation real property leased to certain schools organized and operated primarily for the purpose of engaging in educational functions.
