AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

It is burdensome to licensees and wasteful of public resources to administer licensing programs that do little to protect the public good. For that reason, the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation (TDLR) has undertaken a strategic initiative to identify licensing programs and activities that could be deregulated without threatening public health, safety, and welfare. TDLR has taken few enforcement actions relating to shampooing, and deregulation of the practice would pose minimal risk to consumers. Currently, Chapters 1601 and 1602, Occupations Code, which require a license for barbering, define barbering to include shampooing. S.B. 1503 strikes "shampooing" from the definition of "barbering" for purposes of the licensing requirement.

S.B. 1503 amends current law relating to abolishing shampoo apprentice permits and shampoo specialty certificates.
