Committee Report (Substituted)

AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Businesses have complained that grade inflation has rendered transcripts less-than helpful as a means of appraising college graduates' job applications, due to the fact that since the 1960s, the percentage of As given has risen from 15 percent nationwide to the most common grade given in college (45 percent); nearly 75 percent of all college grades are either As or Bs. The result is a hindered hiring process, workforce competition, and ability of graduate school admission boards to differentiate meaningfully across student transcripts. However, businesses would not be the only beneficiaries of such legislation; Texas students would benefit in that they would be taken more seriously as employers and graduate admissions committees would welcome the greater information.

S.B. 2079 requires a student's postsecondary transcript to include the average or median grade awarded in each class. It does not apply to classes offered to students solely on a pass-fail basis or for independent study credit, or in which grades are reported for 10 students or fewer. S.B. 2079 is not a form of legislative micromanagement of public universities, but rather, a transparency measure for students, parents, businesses, and taxpayers. The chief purpose of the proposed legislation would be to enhance the competitiveness of Texas public university students.

The committee substitute makes two changes. First, the committee substitute make the bill applicable to community colleges. Second, the committee substitute delays implementation until spring 2018.

C.S.S.B. 2079 amends current law relating to a requirement that a student's postsecondary transcript include the average or median grade awarded in each class.
